To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

News of the Morning.

We have Liverpool advices of the 1st inst., per steamship Europa. The political news is unimportant. A sortie from the garrison of Gaeta had been repulsed with great loss. The money panic in this country has induced specie shipments from England.—Breadstuffs are reported dull at another decline.

Hon. HOWELL COBB has resigned the position of Secretary of the Treasury. Hon. L. O. B. BRANCH was appointed his successor, but declines to serve.

The House of Representatives refused to excuse Mr. HAWKINS, of Florida, from serving on the special committee on the state of the Union, by a vote of 95 against 101.

A bill prohibiting Slavery in the Territory of Nebraska has passed one branch of the Legislature of that Territory, with but two dissenting votes.

Senator CLAY, of Alabama, has tendered his resignation to Gov. MOORE, to take effect on the 4th of March next.

The special committee on the state of the Union organized yesterday, the members from Arkansas, Florida and South Carolina declining to appear.

The Senate was principally occupied, yesterday, in discussing the question of Secession.

Advices from Hayti announce the discovery of a conspiracy to change the form of government, and the execution of the conspirators, among whom were several Americans, natives of Baltimore.

A party of four men went to the house of MORGAN WALKER, near Independence, Mo., recently, and demanded his money and his slaves, which was answered by a volley from the inmates, killing one of the robbers and severely wounding another. The three succeeded in making their escape.

The extensive pork packing establishment of HAMILTON & LEWIS, at New Albany, Ind., was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss $60,000—fully insured.

The depot buildings of the Illinois Central R. R. at Dunleith, were destroyed by fire on Monday night.

A large Union Convention was held at Trenton, New Jersey, yesterday, at which Com. STOCKTON presided.

The steamer Flying Cloud, from St. Louis to New Orleans, was burned to the water's edge, Monday, at Memphis.

Resignation of Secretary Cobb.

Mr. COBB, Secretary of the Treasury, having fairly brought his department into bankruptcy, and being, besides, a disunionist at heart, resigned yesterday, as he might profitably, to himself and the country, have done long since. If it be true that JAMES GUTHRIE, of Kentucky, is to be his successor, we shall rejoice in the change. Mr. GUTHRIE is honest, competent, faithful to the Constitution, and loyal to the Union.

What Constitutes Incendiarism in New Orleans.

The N. O. Delta, of last Sunday has the following:

> "Yesterday morning, as we learn from our local intelligence, Mayor Monroe was brought on a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Hunt, of the First District Court, to answer for the arrest of Harris, supposed to be an abolitionist. Harris was taken into custody as a dangerous character. He had uttered language that placed him prima facia in the same category with Helper. He said he would have been glad to have voted for Lincoln. Mayor Monroe thought that if there was, by expression or implication of law, any authority for arresting a man guilty of incendiary language, here was a case for the judicious exercise of it."

So the worshipful Mayor of New Orleans proceeded to arrest Mr. HARRIS, and placed him "in durance vile." Mr. HARRIS, not especially relishing being jailed for having merely signified his Presidential preference, employed a lawyer to get out a writ of habeas corpus, a republican safeguard, whose virtues, it appears, are not yet entirely suspended, and soon had the pleasure of seeing his body brought before Judge HUNT, of the First District of the parish of New Orleans.

It appearing that Mr. HARRIS was arrested and imprisoned without any process of law whatever, Judge HUNT very properly ordered his discharge.

"Wounded in the House of His Own Friends."

The Madison Patriot, the Democratic organ of our State Capital, publishes, without dissent, a savage criticism upon Mr. BUCHANAN's Message, from its Milwaukee correspondent. It opens in this slashing style:

> "Messrs. Editors Patriot:—I have just read the President's Message—the last one, it is hoped, with which Mr. Buchanan will encumber the documentary history of the country. I paid three cents for the "extra" containing it, and my deliberate opinion is that the document is not worth the money. Neither in its manner nor its matter does it reach within many degrees of mediocrity. Some portions of it are tolerable, but others are execrable. Occasionally he gives expression to views that are "eminently sound," but he too often indulges in unmitigated buncome.
> The exceeding bad taste of some portions, and the querulous dogmatism of others, will no doubt be appreciated; and the miserable pettyfogging attempt to make out a case against somebody, deserves and no doubt will receive a just rebuke from the right quarter. There is bad blood in the old man yet. Let us hope that he will be able to inflict no more injuries upon the party whose confidence he so basely betrayed, and that the wisdom and patriotism of Congress will be sufficient to lift the country up out of the slough into which, but for his imbecility, malignity or corruption—all or either—she never would have fallen.

Certainly Mr. BUCHANAN is mainly responsible for the deplorable condition of our national affairs; but in almost all that he did and most of what he said, he had the aid and countenance of the great mass of the Democratic party, and now they want to make him the scape-goat for all their shortcomings and sins.

Grave Question.

> It is becoming a grave question how long the Northern States shall submit to the fiendish barbarities daily practiced upon their citizens in the southern half of the confederacy. For the tenth part of the provocation now existing, we should be at war with the strongest power in Christendom. The St. Louis Democrat of the 5th inst., relates a horrible case of whipping and tarring and feathering practiced in Mississippi upon a gentleman from Juneau county, Wis. We would not excite the public mind, but these things are becoming intolerable.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

Neither the particulars of the outrage above referred to, nor the name of the victim, have yet reached us. Such things are becoming of almost daily occurrence in the Cotton States. Yet the Doughface journals, which have so much to say about the "grievances" of the South, are dumb as to these repeated and intolerable wrongs to innocent and peaceable citizens from the North.

ANOTHER NEW YORK TRAGEDY.—The New York papers bring us intelligence of another dreadful tragedy. A woman (Mrs. SHANKS,) who kept a thread and needle store on Twelfth street, was found in her room, by one of her girls, with her throat cut from ear to ear.

A young man named ALFRED BUCHANAN was arrested, as the murderer, on Monday, and confessed his guilt. He is 20 years of age.

THAT MARYLAND REGIMENT.—Some days since the Governor of South Carolina announced to his legislature the receipt of an offer from "PHILLIP HARRY LEE, Major Commanding the Twenty-Second Regiment, Maryland Volunteer Light Horse," stating that his regiment, 1300 strong, had unanimously resolved to march to the aid of South Carolina. There was joy in Columbia, thereupon. The Baltimore Patrio spoils the offer as follows:

> "The fact of this offer was published by us a few days ago, in a dispatch; which was then considered a hoax, or dated in mistake. It is, of course, needless to say, that no such Major or regiment belongs to this city. The "gallant Palmetto flag" did wave one short hour, some nights since, over a few rowdy foreigners, at the Liberty engine house, and whether "Major" Lee, or "Bony" Lee, was present, history has not notified us. If Governor Gist has no more reliable "aid and comfort" than the Maryland Volunteer Light horse can furnish, he is a hopeless and helpless fix—that's all."

TWO RIVERS ITEMS.—The boiler in the Chair Factory at Two Rivers, collapsed a flue, on Friday last. No serious damage, further than stopping the work, was done; but delay is injurious when work is pressing.

Mr. J. H. Burns, proprietor of the Chair Factory, accompanied by an aged relative and two of his children, met with a painful accident, while riding to Church on Sunday morning. His horse, a very spirited one, was frightened by a coasting sled, and turning short around, turned the buggy bottom upwards. Mr. Burns escaped with but slight injury, but the children were badly bruised, and Mr. Burn's grand mother was severely, though it is hoped not fatally injured. Another example of the dangerous character of coasting where teams are passing. The practice should be stopped.

A SOUTHERN JOURNAL DEFYING SECESSION.—The North Carolina Standard of recent date says:—"We denounce and defy disunionists, and we will make war upon them until the people of this State, of all parties, shall rise in their might and teach them, and teach all professional and designing politicians, that their property, their fortune, their lives and the integrity of the Federal Constitution, shall not be subjected to the control of the demagogues lusting for power and for new places in a Southern Union. Our reliance is on the people. If they will stand by us in this struggle, as we believe they will, we shall fear no consequences."

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE occurred in Hennepin county, Minnesota, quite recently. It broke out about 2 o'clock on Friday morning, in the barn owned by the Meeker Town Co., which, together with its contents, consisting of five horses, two yoke of oxen, two cows and a quantity of hay, grain, &c., were consumed. The fire is supposed to have caught from the pipe of one of the men who went out to feed the cattle about 1 o'clock, for, in about ten minutes after he came in, it was discovered to be on fire, and so rapidly did it burn that it was impossible to save anything. The loss is estimated to be about $2,000.

CURIOUS DISEASE.—A very beautiful young girl, named JOHANNA SCHICK, has been an inmate of a Cincinnati hospital for the past nine months, she being afflicted with a dry gangrene of the foot. Her limb was amputated, on Saturday, but it is thought that she cannot recover. She is sinking fast, and one of her fingers appears to be affected by the same disease.

LETTERS have been received, says the South Danvers Wizard, from GEORGE PEABODY, Esq., of London, stating that he has deferred his return to his native home until 1864, when he proposes to make this country his permanent residence. He states that his health never was better than at the time of his writing.

LAST WEEK's number of Vanity Fair has a cartoon representing Mr. BUCHANAN in the guise of a perplexed Irish laborer, equipped with bundle and shillelah, answering the queries of small boy with this remark: "An' is it North or South I'd be afther goin? Faith! but it's in a dilemmy I am."

The Empress Eugenie's Visit to Gerat Britain.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
LONDON, Nov. 17.

Next to the money market movements, the circumstance that has excited most notice has been an extraordinary visit to London by the Empress of the French.

Her Majesty arrived in London two days back by the Dover railroad in the strictest incognita. She had only a few attendants, and on reaching the station went to an hotel, it is affirmed, in an ordinary street cab.—She has since taken her departure for Scotland on a visit to the Duke of Hamilton, who married a cousin of the Emperor. Of course rumor has been wonderfully busy, and scandal-mongers have been thrown into an ecstacy. The recognized and simple version of the visit is, that her Majesty is suffering from some uterine affection, and that her advisers have deemed it desirable that the case should be treated by Dr. Simpson, of Edinburg. Dr. Simpson, it is said, was requested to visit Paris, but replied that he had six hundred patients under his hands, and could not with any sense of professional duty desert them. Hence the necessity for her Majesty to come to the doctor.

On the other hand the concoctors of gossip in Paris have eagerly transmitted versions more suited to their taste. According to the correspondent of the Morning Herald her Majesty is not in delicate health, since a visit to the inclement climate of Scotland would be inconsistent with such a supposition, and the reasons for her departure are two-fold; the first is, that as a zealous Catholic she is outraged at the recent treatment of the Holy Father, and the other is of a character too delicate to be more than slightly referred to. Rumors that a divorce is impending have at the same time been circulated, but happily all these allegations and surmises have been manufactured not here, but in France, and have neither been invented nor encouraged by the London public. If more weight is attached to them than they deserve, it is from the extraordinary, and it must be admitted indiscreet and undignified, manner in which her Majesty's arrival in London was conducted.

No lady at all above the ordinary rank would select a street cab as a conveyance, because private flys are always in waiting or to be had at a moment's notice, and the whole affair consequently looked more like a hurried flight than any soberly arranged departure of an illustrious invalid seeking to avoid notice and intrusion. The fact that on the following day her Majesty visited the Crystal Palace is another curious anomaly, since it is as difficult to reconcile that step at this season with the idea of shattered health as with the other presumption of personal grief.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST — THE IMPOSTURE EXPOSED.— The evidence of the invasion humbug is at last overwhelming. Gen. Snyder's letter in yesterday's Republican leaves nothing more to be said on the subject. In the first sentence he asserts that the reported "invasion" of Missouri is the "merest piece of Munchausenism without any foundation of truth." The "three hundred" armed outlaws dwindle down to "sixteen vagabond Abolitionists who lurked about Fort Scott for a few days before the Court was to have been held." The italics are his own, and are pointed against Judge Williams, the originator of the "invasion." —Missouri Dem., 7*th*.

Perils of Dissection.

From Dr. Reese's Medical Journal.

At the meeting of the New York Medical Chirurgical College on the 12th October, Prof. Carnochan being unanimously requested to give some account of his recent sickness, stated that the malady from which he had been suffering during the past six or seven months, arose from the examination of the cadaver of a dropsical patient, who had suffered from ovarian troubles, the liver and some other organs being also diseased. The autopsy was made in some haste, and no opportunity was afforded for obtaining lard or oil for the protection of the hands. The contents of the abdominal cavity were still warm, though life had been some hours extinct.

Having laid the open the abdomen, and absorbed the accumulated liquid by sponges, the hands of the operator were passed into the cavity and the diseased organs were sought out and examined. The wound being sewed up, he washed his hands, and as he had not punctured them during the necropsy, nor could perceive any abrasions of the skin, he was not alarmed when, in the evening of the same day, he felt the ends of his fingers somewhat painful. Next morning the fore finger was somewhat swollen as if affected with felon. Still he would not believe that any trouble was to be apprehended, and no remedial measures were adopted. The inflammation, however, spread, and the pain increased.

The following day the malady seemed to be gaining ground, and in the evening the swelling extended to the wrist. He very naturally became alarmed, and soaked his hands in lye, but it was too late; the virus had been absorbed, and the symptoms continued to increase in intensity. The lymphatics became much enlarged, and the limbs generally swollen. Irritative fever supervened, and suppuration commenced about the hand, accompanied by considerable hardness in the affected parts. He called in some medical friends, and after consultation, openings were made on the forefinger, the back of the hand and higher upon the arm. The evacuation of the pus did not diminish the pain; but, on the contrary, seemed at times to aggravate it.

After one of the incisions he became perfectly prostrated with agony; the digital nerve being probably in part divided. As the disease progressed he became typhoid, probably from the absorption of the virus, and was treated with brandy, quinine and stimulants. Symptoms of pyæmia also appeared. The brain was stunned, and he remembered scarcely anything for two weeks. By degrees the malady spent its force, and the brain began to subside; but the amelioration was very slow and very different from that of an ordinary traumatic fraction. The constitutional symptoms also disappeared.

Of the special points of interest in the case, one was the zymotic influence of the virus. It seemed to have the power of generating new morbid corpusties, and propagated itself in all directions with considerable rapidity. Thus the inflammation speedily invaded the whole hand, stiffening the fingers so that fears were entertained that the use of that member might be entirely lost. Then it spread upward through the limb, but happily it was arrested before invading with any very considerable virulence the axilla, which was the principal seat of suppuration in the recent lamentable case of Dr. De Sa, a young Brazilian physician, who recently died at Paris from a dissecting wound in the thumb.

A Dead Letter Incident.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

The utility and accuracy of the Dead Letter Office was this morning thus strikingly illustrated: Assistant Postmaster Everal Zerely, of the finance division, addressed a letter to Auditor Tate, of the Treasury, stating that dead letter H., No. 18, Bk. 3, written by Mr. Adaline Hobbs, New York City, which appears by the record to contain two ten dollar bank bills, was sent on the 28th of November, 1828, for delivery to the writer on the 6th of February, 1829; the Postmaster of New York not being able to find the writer, returned the letter, with its contents to the Dead Letter Office. After a lapse of thirty one years, the letter is now claimed by the person addressed—J. T. Hobbs, Mount Vernon, O., and a draft for the money is accordingly remitted on the very day of the application.

Matters at the South.

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 10.

The Governor, in his message to the extra session of the Louisiana Legislature, exhorts calmness and moderation. He says that the election of Lincoln shows that the Northern mind is poisoned against the South; that the wise counsels of our fathers are forgotten, and that the fraternal remonstrances of the South are disregarded. He recommends a convention, and says that Louisiana ought not to refuse to meet her sister slave-trading States in council, to demand of the North the repeal of obnoxious legislation, and to guarantee against future similar measures.—He says these questions should be met before the inauguration of Lincoln, because the self-respect and honor of the State does not comport with her remaining under a Black Republican President.

In this spirit I shall meet this great question, and in doing so shall be sustained by an immense majority of my constituents.—If time shall show that I am in the wrong in this belief, I shall instantly cease to represent them here. The people, under God, must save this nation, if it is to be saved. The politicians can't do it; what I may be willing to do, or the Senate be willing to do, will avail nothing, unless sustained by the influence and confidence of the people.—There is a class of men North, perhaps South, small in number and influence, who assume that the present contest is a conflict of two civilizations. Freedom or slavery must perish. The great body of those I represent do not thus believe.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 10.

A special dispatch to the New York Herald states that Governor Gist is elected Delegate to the State Convention from Union district.

Senator Clay, of Ala., has tendered Gov. Moore his resignation, to take effect on the 4th of March, unless Alabama should secede earlier.

Col. John A. Elmer has been selected by Gov. Moore, as Commissioner to the South Carolina Convention.

Massachusetts Charter Elections.

BOSTON, Dec. 10—3 P. M.

Isaac Davis, the citizens candidate, was elected Mayor of Worcester to-day.

Sargent, Republican, was chosen Mayor of Lowell.

Newburyport elected Moses Davenport, Union candidate, over Elder Pike, Republican.

Horace G. Hutchins, unionist, was elected Mayor of Charlestown, yesterday, by 704 majority.

Chas. Wm. Gaston, Unionist, was elected Mayor of Roxbury yesterday, by 200 plurality.

From Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, Dec. 11—3 P. M.

We have information from the scene of late troubles to the 7th instant. Large parties of troops from Ft. Leavenworth, have moved to Mound City, there joining a force of 180 men from Fort Riley. Attempts were made to arrest Jemison, but neither he or Montgomery could be found. Rumors of Montgomery's entrenchment and resistance are simply absurd. The inhabitants of Mound City and vicinity were much excited, fearing harsh treatment from federal authorities.

A PREACHER, whose text led him to speak of the prophet Jonah, among other things; said: "I am of the opinion that Jonah was an old man, neither smoking nor chewing, from the fact that the fish retained him so long in his stomach. If the fish had swallowed the house where we are worshiping, he would no doubt have vomited himself to death."

WIGFALL, who misrepresents Texas in the United States Senate, boasts that before he left home he armed all his negroes, and told them to shoot all strange white men who might intrude on his plantation. If, in a sober interval, he told the truth, we advise him not to return home incautiously, for he is the strangest white man his negroes will be likely to encounter.—Louisville Journal.

GEORGE WASHINGTON's "forte," according to Artemus Ward, was "not to hev any public man of the present day resemble him to eny alarmin' extent." We have Wise, Wigfall, Yancey, and others who seem to have adopted the same striking peculiarity.—Louisville Journal.

"TESTIMONY OF THE ROCKS."—The New York Commercial Advertiser says: "The most beautiful edition of this highly interesting work that we have seen, is a twenty dollar gold piece."

THE LOST ON THE ELGIN.

Persons wishing copies of the SENTINEL containing a list of the lost on the Lady Elgin can obtain them at our counting room. Single copies five cents.

THE MADISON PATRIOT IN TROUBLE WITH FACTS.—Our cotemporary at Madison, the Patriot, comes down gushingly on two divines of this city, who have committed the error of departing from theology, in its theoretical sense, and on one or two occasions taken to facts, picked from the history of the day. The Patriot wants to know what business divines have with facts. It don't object to fun and fancy in the pulpit, but facts! Ah! facts, gentlemen, should never be allowed to intermeddle with the high and holy calling of the minister!—Therefore, is the piety of the Patriot shocked? The Patriot, in circumscribing the field of a Milwaukee preacher, unwittingly gets off an apothegm:

> "The pulpit is capable of exercising great good or incalculable evil, just as its preachers keep within their legitimate spheres, or overstep their bounds."

The bounds are marked by facts, and the rash preacher who wanders outside of the bounds thus marked, immediately transforms himself from an angel of light to an angel of darkness and gives his congregation an impetus hell-ward which is truly awful to think of.

Messrs. STAPLES and LOVE of this city are intelligent and even talented men, and they will one of those days see how much the Nineteenth Century is indebted to the Madison Patriot for a full exposition of their powers. The vexed question as to what is a minister's appropriate sphere, and what should constitute his subject matter in the pulpit, is settled. It is any thing but facts! A minister must be filled with love and all its accompanying virtues—benevolence and courage. He must preach for the good of mankind, but if he dares to meddle with any great wrong outside of his bible lids—he's a canting hypocrite—a wolf in sheep's clothing and a fire-brand.

Messrs. STAPLES and LOVE, in preaching the doctrine implied in the text, "Love thy neighbor as thyself," have made a great mistake. Men so sensible should have known that they were simply to stand behind the desk and ring changes upon the words; deal out sickly advice about a beautiful old-fashioned doctrine, and after advising their dear hearers to repent—to drop the subject. They were to preach Love lovingly, setting the example while they gave the precept. They were to preach "Christ Crucified" in the orthodox manner, and advance Christianity by slow and amiable degrees, as doves push their fledgeling out into the world. Instead of doing this, Messrs. STAPLE and LOVE of this city have got a crochet in their heads that wherever there is a great palpable wrong it is their duty to denounce it. They even go so far as to say that Christianity does not consist in theories but in action, events, progress, and in battling with the errors of the age, and with a species of infatuation they put on the armor of discussion and lay about them like troopers with the two-edged sword of truth. Well may such sober fellows as the Madison Patriot begin to grow alarmed, as the gleaming weapon falls about them and lops off here a revered delusion and there a petted iniquity.

Messrs. STAPLES and LOVE, of this city, ought to know that all this is fanatical; that they are overthrowing the Political Government! They at least should know that Religion was made for the carpeted room, and not for the arena where men enact their lives. Christianity must not be lowered and polluted by contact with politics. We have heard enough of THE RIGHT. Let politicians and demagogues doctor outside wrongs! We sincerely trust that the beautiful lesson taught Messrs STAPLES and LOVE, of this city, by the Madison Patriot will be treasured up, and laid away with other useless aesthetics where it can be admired at leisure. If Messrs. STAPLES and LOVE persist in pushing Christianity out into actualities, if they will preach practical truth and meddle with facts, after this last and memorable screech from Madison, then good-bye to political security, domestic happiness and individual comfort. The blood-bought Union, with its starry reminiscences and gory cement, its proud hopes and eventful past, will fade away, and naught remain but a few blasted congregations, writhing under the malign outpourings of Hypocrites and wolves.

Alas for our Country!

ASBURY M. E. CHURCH FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—We wish once more to remind our readers of the fair and festival, which takes place this Wednesday evening, at Conover's Hall, over the drug store lately occupied by Mr. LAKE, near Walker's Point bridge.

We are assured by the originators of the festival that nothing will be lacking to render it a most attractive and enjoyable affair. Parties not furnished with tickets for the supper will be admitted on the payment of ten cents.

Tickets for the supper, price 50 cents, may be obtained of the pastor, Rev. A. WRIGHT, Messrs. JONES, HENDEE, PETERSON, SMITH and at the door of the hall.

INTERESTED IN MILWAUKEE.—Two subscriptions to the "Chronicles of Milwaukee" have been received at this office from the State of Virginia, and one from Missouri, to say nothing of a number from New York and other States. Milwaukee has probably excited an interest in the breast of people abroad. The work will be ready on the first of January.

COLD.—Last night—boo-hoo-o-o — the thermometer told a sad tale—the mercury fell as low as—wheat. It kept on going down, too, until it escaped us entirely. It was by all odds the coldest night of the season.

C. WALL has a furniture sale this morning, consisting of tables, bedsteads, stoves, bureaus, &c., &c.

PERSONAL RENCONTRE. — Considerable talk was occasioned about town on Monday, by a rumor that a difficulty had occurred between Rev. J. L. CORNING and CHARLES CAVERNO, of the Young Men's Association, in relation to Mr. GOUGH's addressing the congregation in the former's church on Sunday evening, while under arrangement with the young men. We are informed that no difficulty occurred between the gentlemen, however; that words passed, but the matter would have rested quietly had not a few members of Mr. CORNING's congregation taken the matter into their hands, and asserting that Mr. CORNING had been insulted, avowed their determination to request Mr. CAVERNO to resign his office.

A great deal of feeling seems to have been evinced on both sides, and yesterday afternoon a rencountre took place in Mr. CAVERNO's office. Mr. G. D. DOUSMAN, we are informed, knocked Mr. CAVERNO down, in the presence of several gentlemen of the CORNING party.

This is a shameful ending to an insignificant difficulty, and it is with pleasure we state that Mr. CORNING is as much grieved at the turn matters have taken, as all quiet and law abiding citizens can be.

As the matter stands now, we are led to infer that Mr. DOUSMAN acted in a hasty and inexcusable manner, and that the action will be regretted by no one more than himself after the foolish excitement is over.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A little child of MORITZ BRENDT, a German residing on Fifth street, in the Second Ward, came to her death on Monday, by falling on the ice. She was playing with a number of other children in an open lot, and was pushed down, or accidentally fell upon her head, causing a slight wound, which caused no uneasiness at the time. At night, however, she complained of a dreadful headache, which increased until she became delirious, and before morning she died.

The gentleman who gives us the particulars, says the little girl was apparently a healthy and robust child, and the sad termination of the accident was as unexpected as it was painful.

MUNICIPAL COURT — December 11th.—The Court was occupied, all day yesterday, with the case of the State vs. Robert Whitehead, indicted for embezzling School Orders. The prosecution was conducted by District Attorney CORSON, assisted by A. R. R. BUTLER, and the defence was managed by JOHN L. DORAN, Esq. The testimony was all in by half-past four P. M., when the counsel commenced summing up. Before they had got through, the Court adjourned till 9 A. M. this morning. The case will, no doubt, be given to the Jury before noon.

GOING TO THE CAPITAL.—We are sorry to learn that our friend KELLOGG, of the Shooting Gallery, is to remove to Madison during the winter, to afford the members of the Legislature an opportunity to practice with the shooting irons. We say we are sorry, because KELLOGG properly appreciated the press and the dead-head system, and always allowed the Editors to take a "crack" when they felt like amusing themselves. We have no doubt, however, of his success at the Capital. We recommend him to the gentry of that town.

EXPRESS MONEY LOST.—Mr. CONVERSE, the express agent at Randolph, Sauk County, reports that a package of $350 was taken from the safe on Saturday last. The safe was brought into the city yesterday and opened, and the deficit ascertained. Mr. CONVERSE thinks it was taken while the key was in the lock and his back was turned.—The CONVERSE family are unfortunate in money matters.

SEYMOUR HOUSE.—If ever you go to Modena—we should have said Oshkosh—don't fail to stop at the Seymour House. It is situated near the Railroad depot and steamboat landing. It is a new house. It is a first class hotel. It is the establishment. It is. If you feel disposed, cut this out, and think of it when you travel Oshkosh-wards. Then will you thank us for our hint.

AMUSEMENT.—At 162 East Water street there is considerable fun; every evening a book sale comes off at half-past seven.—The concourse of individuals that there assemble is the best natured, and, at the same time the best used crowd we ever saw in an auction room. The books are worthy the attention of all. The stock is the largest and best adapted to the popular taste of any yet offered to the public in Milwaukee.

A SENSATION BOOK.—Messrs. BAMFORD & BALDWIN have handed us the last sensation book, being an account of the massacres in Syria, handsomely illustrated with large graphic representations of scenes as they actually occurred during that horrible onslaught on the christians of Mt. Lebanon and vicinity. The country trade can be promptly supplied with this work by Messrs. BAMFORD & BALDWIN.

RETURN OF DEVILLIERS.—Mr. DEVILLIERS has returned to this city from Cleveland, and is now ready to meet the "Unknown Officer" in a trial of skill with the foil, broadsword or bayonet.

THE MEMBERS of St. Andrews' Society are requested to attend the funeral of the late Mr. JAMES MCNEIL, from his residence on the corner of Mason and Van Buren sts., at 10 o'clock A. M.

THE Life of Andrew Jackson
BY JAMES PARTON,
Author of "Life of Aaron Burr," etc.
Three Volumes, 630 to 734 pages each, with Steel Portraits.

CROWN OCTAVO EDITION.—Cloth Binding, $5.00; Sheep, $6.75; Half-Calf, $9.00; Full Calf, $12. SUBSCRIBERS' EDITION, Royal Octavo (sold by Subscription only).—Cloth, $7.50; Sheep, $9; Half Calf $11; Full Calf, $15.

MR. PARTON HAS BEEN SEVERAL years engaged in the preparation of this work, and has bestowed upon it the most careful research and investigation. The first volume of the Subscribers' Edition was issued a year since; the second was published last spring, and the third and last is now completed. Of the first and second volumes the press have spoken in the warmest commendations: "The life of Andrew Jackson was indeed an eventful one, and the events that were crowded into his career, as a pioneer, a general, and a statesman, are among the most important in the history of our country."—Taunton Gazette. "A most all that relates to him is peculiar, extraordinary, and interesting."—Amesbury Times. "Those who have been most familiar with the career of Jackson, will be surprised at the mass of new matter the author has collected."—Boston Journal. "It exhausts the subject."—New York Day Book. "It is an honest book throughout."—Nashville Union. "It is equally free from the spirit of detraction, on the one hand, and of unmixed glorification, on the other. Failings and virtues are alike faithfully delineated."—Western Christian Advocate. "One of the most readable of books. Every page is alive. It is as romantic as a mediæval romance, and yet has the advantage of being true."—Home Journal. "Possesses a degree of interest which can scarcely be overstated."—New York World. "A fresher, livelier account was never written of any hero, by any author."—Boston Advertiser. "No work of fiction could be better fitted to hold the attention and bear the mind along with a sustained enthusiasm, than this account of the real life of one of our own countrymen."—Boston Recorder. "From first to last, the work is intensely interesting."—Philadelphia Ism. "Perfectly fascinating."—New York Day Book. "The narrative is flowing and charming. We confess having read the whole (one volume) in two prolonged sittings."—Harper's Weekly. "The most difficult task was where and how to part company with it."—New York Crayon. "Of intense and permanent interest."—New York Observer. "The most interesting political and personal history ever written of any public man in this country."—Pennsylvanian. "His style is fairly eloquent with vividness and fluency. His account of the defense of New Orleans from its inception to its climax, interests more deeply than a tale of chivalry, or an oriental romance."—Amesbury Times. "One of the most interesting and instructive books we have ever read."—Russell's Magazine, (Charleston, S. C.) "A Life indeed, and before which the conventional and common-place biographies of modern times sink into stupidity and insignificance."—New York Journal of Commerce.

SIX THOUSAND ACRES OF DEEDED Farming Land in the State of Wisconsin—Lands selected and entered several years ago.

I am instructed by the owner to sell said lands at any price, and on such terms that any one, who has any spark of "Go Ahead," can secure for himself and family a home. Who should feel any more independent than the farmer. Of all occupations to create love and love for our country, agriculture is the best. It enables those who pursue it to live a fuller and freer independent life. It is less exposed to temptation. If the multitudes who are hard run to get bread would leave this and other pent up cities and occupy and improve the thousands of acres of fine land in our country, yet uncultivated, it would greatly enhance individual happiness and public good. Try it, ye starved ones.—If you are disappointed, then I am no prophet.—Call at my Land Office, and inquire about the lands I have for sale. CALEB WALL,

THE ABOVE WELL-KNOWN HOTEL, situated in the Fifth Ward, Milwaukee, on the corner of Hanover and Florida streets, is offered for sale at a great bargain, by the proprietor. The above hotel has been kept for fourteen years by the present owner, and during all that time has done a good paying business, and he now desires to sell because his age and the situation of his family unfit him for attending to the duties incident thereto. The house is near all the principal Railroads leading to and from the city, has ample accommodations for one hundred guests and stable room for fifty horses and ample yard room. The house is well furnished throughout, which furniture will be sold if desired with the house. Terms are easy. CITY LAND OFFICE.

LOOK AHEAD. BE PREPARED FOR the flood of emigration which will pour in upon us. Look at the South, all on fire. Thousands of thousands will leave and go where they can have free air and free speech, and lands which they can call their own. Now is the time to invest your surplus money in farming lands. Thousands upon thousands of farmers, and others, who have been struggling for years to make money, are now able to invest. The abundant crops have done a wonderful work, and Providence is smiling upon this great State of ours. Our growth and development in wealth and property will be great beyond precedent. What is to be done with all the money, with the accumulating millions now flowing into the pockets of the people? Invest your money in good farming land; nothing is more safe; the land in Wisconsin will all be wanted. The great noisy South will cause thousands of thousands to come and purchase our lands. Wisconsin is the great western State of this, our Union, and thousands are looking toward us. Invest your money in lands that can be purchased at low prices.

I have seven thousand five hundred acres of farming lands in the Northern and Western parts of our State, which I am instructed to sell at reduced prices. The lands principally are in good neighborhoods, and within short distance of railroads. I have also improved farms to sell, and I also am ready to act as agent for any who have lands and farms for sale; send in your list, with a full description of your property, improvements, price, terms, &c., and I will pay that attention it requires.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 12, '60

A Proposition for a Compromise.

Referring to the fact, that the "Personal Liberty Laws" of a few of the Northern States are, just now, the great "grievance" of the Southern States and their repeal demanded, as the only way to disarm the "Secessionists" and appease the South, the Wisconsin State Journal says:

> "We have already mentioned that Virginia has a statute in substance identical with these personal liberty bills. Mr. J. G. Knapp, the Assistant Supreme Court Reporter, showed us this morning similar laws in the statutes of other Southern States. South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee have stringent laws of this character antecedent in date to the passage of the personal liberty bills in Northern States.
> These we may take for granted, are all right. Why not, then, repeal our present laws, as a matter of compromise, and adopt a new law modelled after some southern law? We are confident that those laws properly administered, would afford every protection against kidnapping which our present laws give; and, if identical in their provisions and language, with laws in force in the extreme Southern States, they could complain of us with even less consistency than at present."

We published, yesterday, the "Personal Liberty Law", of Virginia. It is just as stringent as that of Wisconsin and a great deal more effective. This Virginia enactment is but a sample of the laws of Southern States, intended to protect the inhabitants thereof, white, or colored, in their personal rights. Such was and is the design of the Northern laws on the same subject. The instance cannot be cited where these laws have cost the South a single Slave. And yet the mere fact of their existence, on the Statute books of a few Northern States, is seized upon and paraded, all over the South and by the Doughface organs of the North—President BUCHANAN inclusive—as good ground for "Secession!"

We are willing to deal fairly and justly by the South—to treat them as brethren and meet them half way, in any reasonable proposition to adjust all pending differences. But we can neither talk of, nor think of, compromise, or concession, so long as the South occupies its present defiant position and imperatively demands of the North that it shall do so and so, under the threat of dissolving the Union. Nay, South Carolina, Florida, Texas, Alabama, and large portions of Louisiana, Georgia and Mississippi, utterly reject the olive branch, do not ask for, or desire any compromise; make no appeal to the justice and magnanimity of the North, for the redress of alleged grievances; but, blinded by prejudice and made deaf by passion, they refuse even to hearken to the pacific counsels of the Border Slave States, and openly express their fixed determination to dissolve the Union. This, then, is no time for any offer of compromise from the North. All that we can do, or ought to do, is, to stand firm; and, conscious of the justice of our cause, the integrity of our motives, and the honesty, patriotism and sound principles of our chosen leaders, let us calmly and confidently abide the result.

Beginning to Count the Cost.

> The SENTINEL asserts that it cost two hundred millions of dollars to get Texas into the Union. Well, suppose it did. It has cost twice that amount to get Old Abe into the Executive Mansion already, and he is not within a sixty days journey of it yet, with the probabilities strongly against his ever reaching it.—The Democrats got Texas into the Union, and the Republicans are driving her out.—News of yesterday.

The Republicans have not taken the first step towards "driving" Texas out of the Union. No word, or deed of theirs furnishes Texas with even a decent excuse for "secession." Of all the Southern States, Texas owes the most to the Union, and has the least cause of quarrel with the North. The "re-annexation" of Texas cost the people of the United States two hundred millions of money, and thousands of valuable lives. In return for this heavy sacrifice of blood and treasure, Texas, without the slightest provocation, upon the merest pretext, hauls down the glorious "Stars and Stripes," runs up her "Lone Star flag," threatens resistance to the Federal Government, and declares her determination to secede from the Union. And Northern doughface journals, like the News, proffer her encouragement and sympathy in this act of ingratitude, folly and treason!

A Good Deed Quickly Done.

The passage of Mr. GROW's homestead bill on the third day of the session, proves that the representatives of the people do not intend that the disunion furor shall interfere with the public business. It will be recollected that Mr. BUCHANAN vetoed the bill passed at the last session, though shorn of of all its best features by a committee of conference, to secure its approval by the Senate. This was a new bill, offered immediately upon the veto of that measure, we believe. It was called up by Mr. GROW on the first day of the session, and has thus early passed, through the resolute conduct of its author. Whether it will pass the Senate or not, we have our doubts, and if it does it will probably encounter the President's veto. And then we must look to a Republican administration for this great measure of relief.

THE OPINION OF THE BRITISH PRESS ON SECESSION.—As considerable stress has been laid by the agitators at the South on the supposed moral and material assistance which the Powers of Europe would give the "Southern Republic," formed by the secession of Southern States on the issues at present before the people, we extract from a very able leader in the London Daily News the following paragarph. We take the liberty of italicizing one sentence which foreshadows the sort of countenance England would be apt to extend to a Confederacy founded for the perpetuity of Slavery:

"The cry of secession has been useful for party purposes: but the course which it involves will not suit Southern interests. The great slaveholders know very well that it is no part of the policy of the Republican party to violate that part of the Constitution which forbids every State to interfere with the internal concerns of any other State.—The present victory merely signifies that in the wide spreading 'territories' of the Republic, not yet sufficiently peopled to be formed into States, slavery shall have no legal existence, and consequently that they shall not grow up into Slave States.

The South, Governor LETCHER and JOHN M. BOTTS notwithstanding, will acquiesce in this decision. They dare not go out of the Union with their Slaves, for they have nowhere to go to. They are a great deal safer in the friendship and alliance of the North, whose bayonets would be as readily forthcoming to suppress a servile insurrection as to prevent a dissolution of the Confederation. Long before next March, when Mr. LINCOLN removes to the White House, we shall find that all parties have adjusted themselves to their new relations, and are preparing for a harmless campaign with the old wordy weapons."

TENNESSEE AND KENTUCKY.—A Washington correspondent says that the members and Senators from Tennessee, as well as Kentucky, are strongly for the Union, and speak in no amiable spirit of the mad pranks of South Carolina. One gentleman, speaking for his own county, which is one of the wealthiest and most slaveholding in Middle Tennessee, declares that he doubts if there is a single disunionist within its limits.—members from East Tennessee are thorough-going Unionists. A Democratic member from Kentucky, who supported BRECKINRIDGE, declared recently that South Carolina, though the poorest State in the Union, made more noise than all the other States; and he protested against her dragging Kentucky into disunion.

He that can keep his temper is better than he that can keep a carriage.

Mississippi Secession Convention meets Jan. 7.

Virginia Legislature (special session) meets Jan. 7.

Tennessee Legislature (special session) meets Jan. 7.

Texas Legislature (special session) meets Dec. 17.

The Legislatures of North Carolina, Georgia and South Carolina are now in session.

The Governors of Maryland and Texas have refused to call extra sessions of the Legislature, to "consider the rights of the South." The Texas Legislature, however, will assemble on its own account, and probably call a State Convention, for January 8, 1861.

In the four remaining Slave-holding States—Delaware, Kentucky, Missouri and Arkansas—we have not heard of any unusual movement.

Conservative Letter from Gen. Houston.

Gen. HOUSTON, of Texas, has written a letter on the politics of the day, in answer to a request from several friends to make known his opinions. In this epistle Gen. H. takes strong conservative grounds. We quote the following passages:

"I had hoped that an opportunity would have been afforded me to rejoice in the triumph of some one of the conservative candidates for the Presidency. Had the candidate for whom the voice of Texas was declared been elected, I should have had additional cause of gratification, but such is not the case. On the contrary, I must regret and deplore the election of men whose only claim to the confidence and support of the whole country must be the official character with which the Constitution invests them.

I need not assure you that whenever the time shall come when we must choose between a loss of our constitutional rights and revolution, I shall choose the latter; and if I, who have led the people of Texas in stormy times of danger, hesitate to plunge into revolution now, it is not because I am ready to submit to Black Republican rule, but because I regard the Constitution of my country, and am determined to stand by it. Mr. Lincoln has been constitutionally elected; and much as I deprecate his success, no alternative is left me but to yield to the Constitution. The moment that instrument is violated by him I will be foremost in demanding redress, and the last to abandon my ground.

When I contemplate the horrors of civil war, such as a dissolution of the Union will ultimately force upon us, I cannot believe that the people will rashly take a step fraught with these consequences. They will consider well the blessings of the Government we have, and it will only be when the grievances we suffer are of a nature that as freemen we can no longer bear them, that they will raise the standard of revolution. Then the civilized world, our own consciences and posterity will justify us. If that time should come, then will be the day and the hour. If it has not—if our rights are yet secure, we cannot be justified.

Has the time come? It has; the people who have to bear the burthens of revolution must themselves effect the work.

I cannot believe that we can find at present more safety out of the Union than in it. Yet I believe it due the people that they should know where they stand: Mr. Lincoln has been elected upon a sectional issue. If he expects to mantain that sectional issue during his Administration, it is well we should know it. If he intends to administer the Government with equality and fairness, we should know that; let us wait and see.

The President's Remedy.

The following are the President's propositions by means of which the Union is to be preserved:

"1. An express recognition of the right of property in slaves in the States where it now exists or may hereafter exist.

2. The duty of protecting this right in all the common Territories throughout their territorial existence, and until they shall be admitted as States into the Union, with or without slavery, as their Constitution may prescribe.

3. A like recognition of the right of the master to have his slave, who has escaped from one State to another, restored and "delivered up" to him, and of the validity of the Fugitive Slave law enacted for this purpose, together with a declaration that all the State laws impairing or defeating this right are violations of the Constitution, and are consequently null and void."

The first proposition is gratuitous. However much the existence of involuntary servitude anywhere may be regretted, no Republican has ever sought to meddle with Slavery in the States.

The first half of the third proposition—embodying the obligation of the States to "deliver up" fugitives from service—is also gratuitous. This obligation, however revolting to the moral sense of a portion of our people, is generally recognized. No amendment of the Constitution could make it more distinct or a whit more palatable. Nor if, as the President elsewhere alleges, the Personal Liberty Bills are "clearly unconstitutional," is the latter half of this proposition any less gratuitous. If those laws are unconstitutional, an authoritative "declaration" to that effect may be obtained by a much easier process than an amendment of the Constitution. The Courts have that power.

But the second proposition—to amend the Constitution so as to secure a recognition of the right of property in slaves in all the Territories—is impracticable, because unjust. No such amendment can ever receive the sanction of the States or of the people.—Whether presented as an independent proposition, or in combination with others, it would be spurned. So deep seated is the principle with such an amendment would nullify, that any consequences would be hazarded rather than permit its adoption. To think differently is presumption and folly. The suggestion itself indicates supreme imbecility or infatuation. To preserve the Union intact, and to quiet existing agitation, much might be conceded—if the spirit of concession were mutually exhibited—but the principle involved in this proposition can never be surrendered.

It is the misfortune and fault of the President and his advisers, that wrong doing is only perceptible to them in one direction. If it be true that the rights of slave "property" are not duly reverenced in the North, it is equally true that the rights of white men are not duly reverenced at the south.—For every fugitive slave rescued in the free States, ten free citizens are outraged at the South. But these facts are ignored by the President; and the peace of the country is made to depend on the humiliation of the North, while the South is to pass unrebuked! In this, there is neither patriotism nor wisdom; and unless wiser counsels shall prevail, the terrible evils threatened will not be averted.—Albany Evening Journal.

EXPLOSION ON BOARD A SPANISH WAR VESSEL.—Last evening about five o'clock, an accident of a very serious nature occurred on board the Spanish steam-frigate Berenguela, undergoing repairs in the dry dock at the Brooklyn navy-yard.

A few days since, when the vessel came up to the yard, a salute was fired, when all but two of her guns were discharged. Before entering the dock, the charges of these guns were withdrawn and instead of being placed in the magazine, or conveyed to the shell house in the navy yard, were stowed on the orlop deck, forward, in close proximity to a number of shells from which the fuses had been removed.

The discipline of Spanish vessels seems not to be as strict as that of vessels of other nations, for smoking is not prohibited on board. Some of the sailors, desiring to enjoy the luxury of a cigarette undisturbed, crept below the orlop deck, and, ignorant of the proximity of cartridges, lighted their cigars. While smoking, a spark communicated with one of the cartridges; an explosion, terrific in its effect, instantly following. Some loose sails which were upon this deck took fire and burned rapidly. The alarm was instantly given, the ship's company beat to quarters, and the available force of the navy yard at once turned out to quench the flames. The alarm was also communicated to the city hall, and the city engines repaired to the spot, but their services were not required, as the flames were extinguished by the employees of the navy yard.

It was then discovered that several of the crew had been injured by the explosion; one man, a negro, had in his fright, leaped out of one of the ports into the dry dock, and was so severely injured that he is not expected to recover. Ramon Mensudez, Juan Mario, Deseclario Garea, and Jose Glacier, were injured seriously by the effect of the explosion.

As soon as the fire was subdued and the panic in a measure subsided, the ship's crew were employed in removing the shells to the shell-house in the navy yard. Near the place where the cartridges were so carelessly stored, were two 80 pound bombs, which providentially did not explode, but the risk was so great that it was deemed advisable to remove all ammunition of that description at once.

Had the fire communicated to the magazine of the ship, the loss of property would have been appalling, as the costly dry dock, as well as the vessel, would undoubtedly have been destroyed.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Burning of the Western Lunatic Asylum.

From the Louisville Journal, Dec. 3.

We regret to learn from an extra of the Hopkinsville Mercury that the Western Lunatic Asylum, the largest and most costly building in Kentucky, took fire on Friday morning at 11 o'clock A. M., and in the course of four hours was totally destroyed with the exception of the walls.

The fire was first seen on the roof in the rear of the West wing, and as a high wind was blowing from the Northwest at the time the dry shingles were soon in a flame that defied all efforts at subjection. The vast halls created a draught like the blast of a furnace, and in a short time the immense edifice, which we had thought might stand as an everlasting monument to its builders, was wrapped from tower to foundation in one sheet of livid, crackling, and roaring flames, that swept along with the fury of a tornado.

Dr. Montgomery, the superintendent, lost everything in his great efforts to safe his patients. The assistants suffered in like manner. On reaching the yard some fifty of the patients fled panic stricken to the woods; parties are in the woods searching for them and are fast bringing them in.

On repairing to the spot at 3 o'clock, the editor of the Mercury found the road extending some two miles from the court house thronged with citizens visiting and returning from the scene of the disaster. The splendid structure was the pride of our people, and all were shocked at its swift destruction.

The attendants succeeded in saving the patients, some two hundred and fifty, without injury, except one who was fastened in his cell, near where the fire originated. The attendant, after endangering his own life, had to leave him.

The procession of lunatics marching into town, presented a spectacle of melancholy grotesqueness, as the poor creatures passed on, the men on foot and the females on wagons and hacks, wrapped up in quilts, comforts, and blankets of every description.

Some of them seemed passive and indifferent, some seemed unusually elated, whilst others wore in their fears a vague impression that some heavy misfortune had befallen them. The county and town authorities have made temporary quarters for them in the court house and other buildings, which will be made as comfortable as possible. We learn that the patient burned up was Stewart, a carpenter. Most of the walls are without fissures, and seem as good as ever, but the mistaken economy of the state in not providing a metal roof, has cost her many thousands of dollars. The building cost over $200,000.

A NEW
Hoop and Rattan Machine!!

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS SUCCEEDED in producing Machines for the purpose of splitting and dressing Hoops. The principles developed in the Machines are admired by mechanics for simplicity and durability, as well as the light power required to operate them, in consequence of the oscillating or vibrating motion of the Splitting Knife applied to opening the pole, with a perfect and simple arrangement for entering it, and requiring no alteration in splitting the smallest keg to large hogshead hoops, and is equally well adapted to splitting Rattans, Osiers, Willows and Basket Stuff. The machines have received the highest premiums at the late Fairs at Boston and Baltimore.

Parties wanting Machines we would refer to Mr. P. A. BASSET, of Baraboo, Wis., who has a set in operation.

D. 1856, a mortgage deed, whereby all their railroad, from its eastern termination in the village of Manitowoc, to the Fox river, at the village of Menasha, in the county of Winnebago, being forty-two miles in distance, constructed and to be constructed, together with all and singular the roadway and land procured or acquired, or to be procured or acquired, for rights of way within the limits aforesaid, together with all bridges, fences, privileges, rights, franchises, and real estate owned by said Company for the purpose of said road, or which would be thereafter owned or acquired by the said company, within the limits aforesaid, and all the tolls, income, issue and profits to be had from the same, and all lands which were or should be used and occupied for depots or stations, or which should be thereafter procured therefor, with all the buildings standing, or which should be erected thereon, together with all locomotives, tenders, passenger cars, freight cars, shops, tools and machinery owned or thereafter acquired by the said company, and in any way belonging or appertaining to the said railroad constructed and to be constructed within the limits aforesaid, including all its property, real or personal, pertaining to said railroad, within said limits, and all its rights, credits and franchises thereunto belonging, were conveyed to the undersigned, to be held by them in trust for and as a security to the bondholders of said company, for the payment of the bonds of said company, secured by said mortgage deed, and of the interest thereon as it should become due.

And whereas, by said mortgage deed it is provided that if said railroad company should fail, neglect or refuse to pay the principal sum, or any part thereof, or any of the interest on any of the bonds of said company secured by said mortgage deed, at any time when the same shall become due, and payable according to the tenor of said bonds, when demanded, then, at the expiration of sixty days from and after such default, failure, neglect or refusal, in case such principal or interest should then remain unpaid, the subscribers hereto were authorized and directed by said mortgage deed, upon the written request of the holders of at least one-half of the said mortgage bonds issued under said mortgage deed then outstanding unpaid, to cause the said premises, real and personal estate, and property, rights and franchises, or so much thereof as should be necessary to pay and discharge the principal and interest of all the said mortgage bonds as should then be unpaid, to be sold at public auction, in the village of Manitowoc, in the State of Wisconsin aforesaid, or in the city of New York, on giving at least ninety days's previous notice of the time, place and terms of such sale, and of the real and personal property and estate, rights and franchises to be sold, by publishing the same in two newspapers of good circulation in each of the cities of Milwaukee and New York, in order to pay and discharge the principal and interest of the mortgage bonds aforesaid, and on such sale to execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed of conveyance in fee simple for the same, which will be a bar against the said railroad company, their successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them, of all right, interest or claim of, in or to the said premises, real and personal estate and property, rights and franchises, or any part thereof.

And whereas, the interest that became due on the first day of October, 1857, upon all the bonds issued by said company secured by the mortgage deed aforesaid, amounting to the sum of three thousand one hundred and fifteen dollars, was not paid by said Company, of which non-payment more than one-half of said bondholders have given the undersigned due and sufficient written notice, in full compliance with the conditions of said mortgage, and have required them to proceed to sell said property in order to pay the amount due them on said bonds.

Notice, therefore, is hereby given, that in pursuance of the authority in us vested by said mortgage deed, we will expose for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, or for the said outstanding mortgage bonds, or any of them, at the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of New York, on the 28th day of March, 1861, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, all and singular the Manitowoc and Mississippi Railroad Company, together with the privileges, rights, franchises, personal property and real estate of said Company, with all the rights, privileges and profits appertaining thereto, in order to pay off the indebtedness of said Company, to said bondholders, and the cost and expenses of this sale.

American Watches,

MADE BY THE

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY,

AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Attention is invited to the following statement and the accompanying letters of recommendation and testimonials, in favor of these celebrated Watches.

A gold medal was awarded the Company by the American Institute at New York in 1857.

The Company also received the first premium—a gold medal from the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, in 1858.

These Watches have now been in market for nearly ten years, during which time they have been tested as to accuracy, durability, and reliability in every conceivable manner, and have proved themselves to be the most satisfactory time-pieces ever offered to the public.

This result has been brought about by a strict application of mechanical science to the construction of the Watch from its very inception, rendering it when finished, mathematically correct in all its proportions, and necessarily as perfect a time-keeper as it is possible to make.

The Company have tested their Watches in many instances, by actual daily noting, and the result of this test has been that they have exhibited a rate equal in regularity to the best marine chronometer.

From the Prairie Farmer, Oct. 1860.

AMERICAN WATCHES.—Nearly a year ago, we received from Messrs. Robbins & Appleton, General Agents of the American Watch Company, and paid for a good looking watch, "warranted," with the request that after thorough trial we should say what we thought of it, editorially. It has been our constant companion nearly a year. We have had no fault to find with the way it has ticked the time. We do not want a better timepiece than this has proved to be thus far. Once regulated (and we regulated it ourself) it has scarcely varied a half minute a month from "transit time." Added to its quality as a good time keeper, it is honestly and substantially made. Were we going to purchase, we should prefer an American watch.

Office of the Tribune,
New York, Oct. 27, 1859.

American Watch Company, Waltham,

Gentlemen,—Having carried one of your watches for the last eight years, I can say confidently that they will do, and may be bought with assurance that they will keep time. I believe the watch unsurpassed.

HORACE GREELEY.

New York, Aug. 2, 1860.

Gentlemen—In reply to yours of 25th ulto, we take pleasure in stating that the American watch now in use upon our railroad, has varied only six seconds, in a little over six months.

Respectfully,
S. W. & W. A. TORREY,
Contractors on the Rar. and Del. Bay R. R.

To Messrs. Robbins & Appleton.

Boston, Sept. 27, 1859.

Mr. R. E. Robbins, Treasurer Amer. Watch Co.:

Dear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to comply with your request for a report of the performance of the American Watch I purchased of you Dec. 2, 1858. It was set on that day, and the variation from true time to the 29th of February, 1859, when I let it run down, was ten second fast. From that time to the present, it has run with nearly perfect steadiness, having during the eight months remained at from seven to nine seconds fast, and this with uncommonly rough usage. I can commend your manufacture in the highest terms.

Yours trul
JAMES H. CLAPP,
Firm of Clapp, Fuller & Brown, Bankers, Boston.

The following named gentlemen may be referred to in relation to these Watches:

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Me.; John G. Saxe, Vermont;
N. P. Willis, New York; Hon. N. P. Banks, Mass;
Horace Greeley; Frank Leslie;
Cyrus W. Field, New York; Wm. H. Cary, N. Y.;
Paul Morphy, New Orleans; Norman Wiard, Wis;
Dr. J. Marion Sims; Prof. Bartlett, West Pt;
Lieut. H. A. Wise, U. S. N.; Col. W. J. Hardee, U. S. A;
S. I. Prime, D. D., Wh't Pls; Wilson G. Hunt, N. Y.;
Gen. G. P. Morris, N. York; Peter Cooper, N. York.

CAUTION.—As our Watch is now extensively counterfeited by foreign manufacturers, we have to inform the public that no watch is of our production which is unaccompanied by a certificate of genuineness, bearing the number of the watch, and signed by our Treasurer, R. E. Robbins, or by our predecessors, Appleton, Tracy & Co.

As these watches are for sale by jewelers generally throughout the Union, the American Watch Company do not solicit orders for single watches.

COUGHS.—THE SUDDEN CHANGES of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. SNOW BALLING.

BY JOSIE S. HUNT.

The soft, loose gold of her tresses
Is straying about her face,
And the wind through its silken meshes
Is running a frolicsome race.
Her violet-eyes—how they darken and flash!
Her rose-red cheeks—how they glow!
As she stands ankle-deep, in the milk-white drifts,
Pelting me with the snow.

She tosses the soft flakes round her,
In her pretty, hoydenish play,
Till she looks like a sea-nymph rising
Through the billows of foam and spray.
She molds the balls with her little bare hands;
Do you think she would pout or scold
If I nestled the pink palms down in my breast
To warm them?—they look so cold!

Her white woolen mittens are flung on the snow,
Each one in itself a flake,
And her silken scarf beside them lies,
Coiled up like a crimson snake,
All about me tracks of her soft brown feet
Have printed the downy snow,
And I know by them where, another spring,
The prettiest flowers will grow.

She laughs and scoffs when my snowballs fly
Harmless over her head,
And she flirts her curls in a saucy way,
And crouches in mimic dread;
She calls me a sorry marksman,
An awkward fellow—and still
The sly little witch knows well enough
It isn't for lack of skill.

She knows I would sooner think
Of tearing a butterfly's wing,
Or beating a lilly, or throttling
The first sweet robin of spring,
Than of aiming at her in earnest,
Or hitting her if I could,
Or harming so much as a tassel
Of her little scarlet hood.

Gay, beautiful Madge! Oh, what would she do
If my mouth was half as bold
As the crystals which fall on her lips and her hair,
Like pearls among rubies and gold?
Will her pride and her willfulness trample my love,
As her light feet have trampled the snow?
That the missiles she flings, which are ice to my face,
Are fire to my heart, does she know?

Sweet tease! does she guess I am wondering now
Whether she'll ever be,
In the long, long future before us both,
Anything more to me
Than a little hoyden, with wild, gold hair,
And rose-red cheeks in a glow,
Who stands ankle-deep, in the milk-white drifts,
Pelting me with the snow?

History of a Jackson Office-Holder.

The cool air of Pennsylvania Avenue restored me to some degree of composure.—I had half concluded to start homeward the next morning, when it occurred to me that my letter of introduction was addressed to Mr. Eaton as well as to Mr. Branch, and that it would be an absurd proceeding to give up the game with a card in my hand. To the War Department building I accordingly directed my steps, and was admitted at once to the presence of the chief. As it was late in the afternoon, the business of the day was nearly completed, and the Secretary was at leisure and in excellent humor. Major Eaton was a stout, good-humored, agreeable old man, extremely easy and cordial in his manners. He rose at my entrance, read my letter with attention, shook hands with me heartily, and invited me to be seated, and make known my desires.

Like Mr. Van Buren, he said he would be glad to promote my wishes in any way that might be in his power. We chatted a quarter of an hour in a friendly manner upon the affairs of our party in New York, when Mr. Eaton observed:

"This letter, I perceive, is addressed to Governor Branch as well as to myself. You will see the Governor, I presume."

"No, sir," said I, with tremendous emphasis, "I am not going to see Governor Branch. I have called upon Govenor Branch, and shall not repeat the visit, I can assure you."

"No! Why, has anything unpleasant occurred?"

I then told him my story as I have told it to you, beginning with my interview with Mr. Van Buren in New York, and ended with my abrupt departure from the office of the Secretary of the Navy. Seldom have I seen any one so convulsed with laughter as Major Eaton was during the recital of my adventures. He lay back in his chair and shouted with laughter. He stood up and laughed. He walked up and down and laughed. He lay on the lounge and laughed. I laughed, too, and saw, for the first time, how ludicrous some of my performances had been. When I had finished, the jolly Secretary said:

"Now, Mr. Clark, will you have the goodness to tell me that story all over again?"

I repeated it, verbatim, with the same result as before. Then Eaton said:

"One more favor I ask of you. I want you to come to my house this evening, and tell that story to Mrs. Eaton exactly as you have told it to me."

I went to his house that evening, and found assembled there a large company of gentlemen, who paid assiduous court to the lady. Mrs. Eaton was not then the celebrated character she was destined, ere long, to be made, and I knew nothing of the peculiar position she held in the society of the capital. To me she seemed a strikingly beautiful and fascinating woman, all graciousness and vivacity; the life of the company. Her rooms, as I soon found, were the resort of the extreme Jackson men, and her favor was supposed to be the indispensable preliminary to preferment. Ignorant of all this, I told my story to the lady's great amusement, and that of all her guests. I thought that I had made rather a brilliant debut into the society at Washington; and went to my hotel well pleased with my prospects and myself.

Mr. Van Buren arrived shortly after, and I waited upon him, of course. What influences, besides those already mentioned were brought to bear in my favor, I know not; but, in a few days, I had the gratification of learning that I was appointed to a clerkship in the Department of State, and that my attendance was required on the following morning at 10 o'clock. The place to which I was appointed was not conspicuous, but confidential; and, as I then thought, munificently remunerative. I had in charge the finances of the Department, and was the usual confidential messenger from the Secretary of State to the President. It was the very place of all others I would have chosen and the very place I felt myself fitted to fill with credit. My gratitude to the Secretary was boundless, and so was my desire to stand high in his regard.

At ten in the morning, I presented myself at the office of the Secretary of State. My predecessor, as I learned afterwards, had received no intimation that he was to be removed up to that moment. He was a protege of the late President, Mr. Adams, and supposed that, according to previous usage, he would be retained, whoever might be displaced. He had a young family dependent solely upon his salary, and was himself an exceedingly amiable and worthy gentleman. Mr. Van Buren, upon seeing me enter his apartment, rang for a messenger, and said:

"Inform Mr. Jones that I wish to speak with him for a moment."

Mr. Jones appeared. Mr. Van Buren addressed him in these words:

"Mr. Jones, I beg to make you acquainted with Mr. Clark, of New York. The government, Mr. Jones, has no further occasion for your services in this department. Mr. Clark is appointed your successor. Have the goodness to take him to your room, and give him what information he requires respecting his duties.

The blow was so sudden and so unexpected, that poor Jones could scarcely conceal his feelings. He stood, for a moment, paralyzed and speechless, and then left the room without a word. I followed him to his office, upon reaching which, he said, in a tremulous voice, and a wild, absent manner:

"Excuse me a moment, Mr. Clark; this is rather sudden. I will rejoin you in a moment."

He staggered out of the room, and remained absent about ten minutes. When he returned, all traces of emotion had vanished, both from his countenance and his manner, and he preceeded, with perfect courtesy and much patience, to explain to me the nature and routine of my future duties. I pitied him from my soul. I would not dismiss a scullion from my kitchen so. Nor would Mr. Van Buren. It was the System that beggared poor Jones, and made me a "made man." A system, like a Corporation, has no soul. [But it ought to be damned, nevertheless.—REPORTER.]

On rejoining Mr. Van Buren, he said to me:

"I know nothing about this place of yours. Find out the law and govern yourself by it."

He said to me, afterward, that he hated patronage. He preferred an office that had none.

"No matter how you dispense it, you make enemies. The man you remove is your enemy. His friends are offended. The man you appoint is not likely to be satisfied, and all the unsuccessful applicants feel themselves injured."

"I am an exception to your remark, Mr. Van Buren," said I, "for I am perfectly satisfied with my place. I would not change it for any in the department. I could wish nothing better."

As I had charge of some of the Secret Service funds, the disbursements from which required the President's special authorization, the course of my duties led me often to the White House. My first interview with the President displayed my faculty of honest blundering to fine advantage. Charged as I was, on that interesting occasion, with a packet of papers from my chief, I marched up to the door of the Presidential mansion, big with a sense of the grandeur of my mission. I had also an extreme desire to see General Jackson, whom I had been accustomed from my childhood to revere. An Irish porter answered my ring.

"I wish to see the President," said I, perhaps not with the condescension which becomes a great man.

The man replied in a tone of the most irritating nonchalence:

"The President is engaged, and can't be seen."

"But I must see the President," said I, in a very decided manner. "I have business with the President."

He said he would take up a card. So I hastily wrote on one the name of Mr. Van Buren, meaning that I was there by that gentleman's orders, and was his representative. I added some indistinct words to that effect, which, as I soon learned, were either illegible or not observed. The porter became obsequious enough when he had caught the name I had written, and invited me to take a seat in the vestibule. He took up my card, and instantly returned with a request for me to "walk up."

I walked up. I entered the President's office, where half a dozen gentlemen were seated in conversation. On my presenting myself at the door, the whole group, including the President, rose, and, after eyeing me a moment burst into laughter. I stood astonished and abashed. The President, however, immediately explained the cause of this sudden merriment.

"Mr. Clark, I presume," said he, very politely.

"The same, sir," said I.

"Excuse our laughing, Mr. Clark," he continued. "I just glanced at your card, and seeing the name of Mr. Van Buren, concluded that we were about to see that gentleman."

I explained how the error arose, and, in doing so, happened to use a phrase, the selection of which would have done honor to the most adroit of politicians.

"I brought no card of my own, Mr. President," said I, "as it did not occur to me that a messenger from Mr. Van Buren could be refused admittance. And when your porter, sir, said that you were engaged and could not be seen, I thought I would take the responsibility of sending up the name of Mr. Van Buren."

Upon this the General gave a most energetic pull at the bell-rope. The offending porter appeared.

"This gentleman," said the President, "is to be admitted at all times. Mark my words—at all times. Mr. Clark, be seated. In a few moments I shall be at your service.

He spoke in a peculiarly frank and cordial, yet authoritative manner. There was the MASTER in his every tone, but a master whom it would be a delight to serve. I loved him from that hour. In his presence I always felt entirely at home, but in Mr. Van Buren's, though I saw him every day, I never felt so. My business with the President, at that time, was merely formal. He examined the statement I had brought with me, signed it, and I took my leave. I noticed that the pen with which he wrote was a steel one of remarkable size. Some one asked him, one day, when he complained of his pen, if he should take it to the blacksmith's for repair. It was a great pen, and he wrote with a furious rapidity, sometimes, that I have never seen equalled.

A few days after this interview, Mr. Van Buren, who had been for a day or two employed upon an important foreign dispatch, requested me to make a fair copy of the same, and take it to the President, and ask him if it correctly expressed his views. The Secretary of State, I may add, devoted himself most laboriously to the duties of his department, and took great pains with his official letters. He used to write on paper ruled very wide, so that he could add to or alter them the more conveniently. This particulr dispatch came to my hands, I remember, blank with erasures and interlineations. I copied it and took it to the President, who read it over with great deliberation, and sat brooding over it for some minutes after he had finished it. He broke silence at length:

"Well, Mr. Clark, I don't see the use of beating round the bush in this way, when you can say what you mean in a straightforward manner. What do you think of it?"

"I, Mr. President? I am incapable of judging of such an affair. My opinion is worth nothing."

"That's for me to say," rejoined the General; "I want your opinion."

"Well, sir," said I, "since you ask me, I must say that the straightforward way of saying a thing has always seemed to me the best. In fact, I know no other. But really, General, I am very inexperienced, and perhaps—"

"I think just so," broke in the General, energetically. "Leave the paper with me, Mr. Clark, and I'll see Mr. Van Buren myself about it. Ask him to step up and see me."

I obeyed. The next morning I fancied that the manner of my chief was somewhat more reserved toward me than usual. He dropped a remark in the course of the day, which led me to infer that he did not approve of my observations to the President, non-committal though it had been. I then narrated to him the interview just as it occurred. I told him that I had shrunk from expressing an opinion, but the President had demanded it peremptorily, and I was compelled to give it, such as it was.—He seemed satisfied with my explanation, and never alluded to the circumstance again. He may have remembered it, however; I know I thought so ten years afterward.

Before many days elapsed, I was again in the President's private office, on an errand of the same nature, when he again asked my opinion of the paper I had brought him to read. I was not going to be caught a second time. Indeed I had made up my mind beforehand that I would venture no more opinions on any subject in that apartment. So I said in my blunt way:

"Mr. President, I really wish you would not ask me what I think. The truth is, sir, Mr. Van Buren didn't seem pleased that I gave my opinion the other day about the dispatch.

I then told him what Mr. Van Buren had said, and how I had explained the matter. The General laughed heartily.

"Why, he wasn't offended, was he?" he asked. "He couldn't be."

"No," said I he was n't offended. Still he didn't like it, and I would decidedly prefer not to give any more opinions."

The General was exceedingly merry at this reply. At length he said:

"Come, my young friend, tell me honestly what you think of this passage, and I'll promise not to tell Van Buren anything about it."

I then gave him my opinion. Always after that he asked me what I thought of the papers which I submitted to his perusal, and often prefaced the question by assuring me, in a jocular manner, that he would not tell Van Buren.

THE ATTENTION OF THE YOUNG men of Wisconsin in particular, and of the Western and North-western States generally, is respectfully called to the advantages which this Institution offers for the acquisition of a knowledge of

BOOK-KEEPING

And commercial pursuits generally. It is now in a flourishing condition, and is working under a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION. The rooms are large and commodious, and are fitted up in splendid style. On introducing the subject to the student, he is led carefully, step by step, through the fundamental and general features of the science; and when these are fully realized, he is required to embark into a career of general speculation and merchandising, framing and adjusting contracts, purchases, sales, &c., &c.; making the necessary entries in the principal and auxiliary books, in precisely the same manner and order as they are made by the skillful Book-Keeper, in the counting-room of actual business.

Thus when the work is completed, the Student finds himself, not a mere theoretical, but a practical accountant, being fully conversant with every branch of this interesting and important science, as applied to General Mercantile, Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Importing, Exporting, Foreign and Domestic Shipping, Stocks, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Mining, Steamboating, Railroading and business of Compound or Company speculation, in each of which, he has met with adverse as well as prosperous operation.

The Ladies' Department is entirely separate and tastefully furnished.

TERMS:—For a full course of instruction, with the privilege of completing the same at any time, including penmanship thus affording a life Scholarship, $40.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five or eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

One or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One or two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One or two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles has cured the worst cases of dropsy.

By strictly following the directions in the pamphlet around each bottle, and a judicious application of the

SALT RHEUM OINTMENT,
SCROFULA OINTMENT and HEALING OINTMENT,

every sore and ulcer, of whatever kind or nature, except cancer, that has taken root, is perfectly and permanently cured.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

Canker

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

Dyspepsia

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Kidneys

Your stomach is

Raw and Inflamed,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

Cure:

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the Piles.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly, DONALD KENNEDY.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption,

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the United States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities anywhere which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil, to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford to those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

MOFFAT'S

Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES:

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder: they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description: King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Misenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—3 P. M.

The democrats from the northwest have had several conferences relative to the present condition of politics. They generally take the position set forth in Messrs. McClernand and Vallandigham's speech yesterday; namely, that the Union cannot be dissolved peaceably; that the northwest will under no circumstances consent to be cut off from the Gulf of Mexico; a resolution recommends the erection of a military board, and asks for an appropriation of $500,000, for the purchase of arms for volunteer companies. The members are not disposed to do anything hastily, but favor preparation for any emergency.

The Times' Washington correspondent says:

Mr. Tapscott, bearer of the President's Message to South Carolina, was also charged with the duty of consulting with the State authorities as to their purposes after the ordinance of secession was passed. He returned last evening, and reports everything quiet, and no danger of a collision with the Federal Government.

To-day the arrangement is perfected, and things will remain in statu quo until after the Commissioners shall have failed to arrange for a peaceable separation.

Cobb has at last resigned, but his successor has not been nominated, although rumor says differently. One report is that Mr. Guthrie has been named; and another that Mr. Holt takes the treasury, and Hon. L. O. B. Branch takes the P. O. Department.

Secretary Thompson will soon follow Cobb. He entered his office to day but did nothing more than look after a few letters on his table.

Still another rumor is that Mr. Schell goes into the Cabinet.

A messenger from South Carolina arrived to-day, bringing the vote of that State for President. He delivered the vote and drew pay for his services.

The Herald's correspondence says: Mr. Buchanan has tendered the office of Secretary of Treasury to Mr. Guthrie, Ex Secretary of Treasury under Pierce, and he has accepted by telegraph. My authority is of such a character that I cannot doubt the report.

The World's correspondence says: It seems well credited here that Postmaster General Holt will be transferred to the Treasury, and Mr. King, now first assistant, will be made Postmaster General.

Erastus Corning is also named as the successor of Mr. Cobb.

Messrs. Milnes, Bonham and McQueen called upon the President to-day and had a long consultation with him, with regard to secession of South Carolina, and the terms on which she will go out of the Union.

The business of the Treasury was entirely suspended to-day as the President did not commission Mr. Clayton, Mr. Cobb's assistant, to fill the office temporarily, as heretofore. This omission was considered significant.

Reverdy Johnson, who has just returned from California, declares himself for Union at all hazards, and against all opposition.

Nebraska Legislature.

OMAHA, Dec. 10.

The House to-day passed a bill to prohibit slavery in the Territory, their being but two dissenting votes. The bill will be considered in the Council to-morrow, and will probably pass that body in a few days.

A bill to incorporate the Missouri and Western and Pacific telegraph companies has been introduced, and will doubtless become a law.

Snow fell yesterday to the depth of nine inches.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—9 P. M.

HOUSE—Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, did not rise to make a speech, but to express an anxious desire that the select committee should commence their business, and present their deliberations in some tangible form. His hope was, however, faint as to any useful result; if anything was to be done to save his State it must be done at once. The election for delegates to the State Convention takes place on the 29th, and the Convention meets on the 7th of January. What means these crowded galleries? His answer was the excitement which pervades the public mind, not only here, but throughout the country; all are looking to Congress to do something. He hoped the House would stop this debate and do something to produce harmony.

There was a pure beam of light from Boston, which may ultimately have a good effect upon the public mind. Let the North show a returning sense of justice, and the question will then be taken into the hands of the people for proper adjustment. He trusted that the committee would do something to harmonize the distracted public mind. He knew that Alabama would not remain in the Union longer than the 15th of January, unless something was speedily done. He was not a secessionist. He desired peace, predicated over the principles of the Constitution. If you can give us that, you can help us to remain in the Union as long as the sun shines.

Mr. Davis of Mississippi, briefly gave the reasons why he should serve on the committee.

The House voted and refused to excuse Mr. Hawkins. 95 against 101.

Mr. Hawkins, lest silence should be construed into consent to serve on the committee, wished to say, with all deference and good feeling for those who voted against his request, that he would not serve.

Mr. Boyce asked to be excused from serving on the committee.

Mr. Smith, of Va., objected.

Mr. Burnett thought the refusal to excuse gentlemen was extraordinary, after they have made up their minds on mature reflection, and in justice to their respective States that they cannot serve.—He was satisfied the committee did not express the sentiments of the various sections. The representatives of South Carolina will remain here only a few days longer; why then refuse to excuse?

Mr Boyce—Is force the mode and manner of instituting measures with a view to restore peace and good feeling in the country?

Mr. Smith, of Va., said: He would not use force. He was one of those who refused to excuse Mr. Hawkins, and after the lecture of Mr. Burnett, he felt it his duty to vindicate his vote. Present affairs are big with the affairs of the Republic, and discussion on the question was not likely to do any good. He, however, expressed his surprise and mortification that the Republican side of the House had refused to participate in the discussion.

Mr. Curtis wished to say his party had not refused to discuss. He would do so at the proper time. He wanted the committee, of which he was a member, to have a fair hearing.

Mr. Smith resumed—He expected the opportunity would have been presented of exhibiting the different views of members as a means of influencing the action of committee, and was anxious that every State participate in it and in the committee, and hence he could not excuse Mr. Hawkins, because if this were done Florida would be unrepresented.

Mr. Burnett, in explanation, said this Government is not to be saved by mere eulogies on the Union, but by speedy action.

Mr. Smith resumed—Nobody expected to see force used to compel Hawkins to serve, other than that of mere opinion. The gentleman is resolved not to serve on the committee; let him refuse, but not request to be excused, with a private determination not to perform his duty.

The House refused to excuse Mr. Boyce by a tie vote

Mr. Smith of Va, having been informed that Mr. Hawkins supposed he had made some insinuations to his prejudice, disclaimed any such intentions and spoke of the uprightness and integrity of the gent from Florida.

Mr. H. was understood to be satisfied with the explanation.

Mr. Morrill asked to be excused from serving on the committee, because of other duties which fully employed his time.

After debate Mr. Corwin offered a resolution which was adopted authorizing the select committee to employ a clerk at $4 per day and that the committee have leave to sit during the session of the House until they shall report or be otherwise discharged.

Mr. Sherman, from the committee on ways and means, reported the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, making appropriations for the support of the Indian department.

Mr. Sherman introduced a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the committee on Indian Affairs to inquire whether any Supt. of Indian Affairs can be dispensed with without public detriment. Mr. Sherman presented the petition of Thaddeus T. Hayatt, asking for relief for the people of Kansas.

Mr. Garnett objected to it, and the House referred it to the Committee on Territories.

Mr. Morris, of Ill., made an ineffectual attempt to introduce his Union-loving declaratory resolution.

The question on excusing Mr. Morrill was taken up and negatived.

Mr. Hindman wished to propose an amendment to the Constitution. He was opposed to legislation for expediency.

Mr. Morris, of Ill., objected.

Mr. Branch offered a resolution which was adopted, that the States be called to-morrow for bills and resolutions; and that those relative to the state of the Union be referred to the select committee.

At half past 2 o'clock the House adjourned.

SENATE.—The House bill to provide for the payment of outstanding treasury notes, and authorize a loan, &c, was taken up after some remarks from Mr. Rice against, and Mr. Cameron in favor.

On motion of Mr. Rice, it was referred to the committee on Finance.

The resolution in relation to the portion of the President's message in reference to secession, was taken up.

Mr. Hale offered a resolution that the committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire whether the expenses of that branch of the public service cannot be reduced without detriment to the safety; and that if they can, they be instructed to report to what extent, and in what particular branch or branches can be dispensed with or reduced. The resolution was adopted.

Bigler then took the floor, having yielded it yesterday. He said he would go with the Senator from Illinois, with men of every party who will devote themselves to the work of rescuing the country from the impending danger. Mr. President, from weal or woe I am a Union man. I am for the Union as made by our fathers. I am for the Constitution and the Union. Mr. Bigler then concluded that in Pennsylvania and New York there were more votes than in all the States threatening secession. The Republican party has gained it last victory; let us remain together.

Mr. Iverson said the South does not fear the operation of Personal Liberty bills Fugitive Slave laws, &c. If they were all repealed, we fear the mob law most. It has been said that the amendments will be made so that a State may be sued for damages, to the value of the slave, if refused to be given up. Such a law is worthless. You can't sue a State in its sovereignty. The case can't be brought to court. The vote of the late Presidential contest shows the public sentiment at the North—all the Douglas-Non-intervention-squatter-sovereignty party in the North can't avail. (Laughter.) Under Black Republicanism, the border Slave States become a burthen. If the South is left to herself, the slaves will increase in 30 years from 4,500,000 to 30,000,000; the slave population will preponderate over the white.

Mr. Pugh said: "Do you hope to continue the Union from the extraordinary speech just heard, when the people of any State, Territory or community do not desire slavery? My right arm shall go from its socket before I will force them to accept it."

Mr. Iverson said: "I refer you to my speech Feb. 23th, when I was in the chair. You did not say yes, then. I referred to the Burns Fugitive Slave case."

Mr. Puge—That is the only case.

Mr. Iverson read from the Globe to prove that Mr. Pugh did not adhere now to what he had stated before this session.

Mr. Pugh—Let me read the rest.—(Laughter.) I contradict that the fugitive slave law was trampled under foot.

Mr. Iverson—Twenty years ago a report was made by order of the Virginia Legislature, proving that $100,000 worth of slaves were lost annually from its limits, by their being fugitives.

Mr. Pugh—I do not believe that all the slave States have lost $100,000 by their fugitives.

Mr. Douglas—Like many other laws, the fugitive slave law is not enforced in every State.

Mr. Green—If a man runs off with a horse, his loss is a pecuniary consideration only, but to steal a nigger is something more. I wish the strong arm of the Government to discharge its function—a Government that won't do it, I would spit upon. I would sooner have the despotism of Louis Napoleon and the Prince of Wales over me than a government that would not command respect.

Mr. Douglas—No law can be said to be left unexecuted, unless it has been brought before a Court of some sort.

Mr. Green—I don't uphold the sentiment of stealing horses or negroes.

Mr. Douglas—I speak only as to the nonexecution of the laws.

Mr. Fitch—I know my State for the last twenty-five years. There has been but one instance of the rescue of a fugitive.

Mr. Powell—Some time ago a negro ran away from Kentucky to Illinois, and the governor of the latter State did not perform his duty.

Mr. Wade—If I recollect rightly, the indictment did not show that the party was ever in Kentucky.

Mr. Powell—The gentleman is evidently mistaken.

Mr. Wade—I do not know much about it.

Mr. Powell—You had better then investigate the facts of the case before you draw the attention of the Senate to it.

Mr. Pugh—Is the gentleman, (Powell) aware of all the facts.

Mr. Powell—The Governor of Illinois was wrong.

Mr. Davis—Alas, it all resulted in crimination and recrimination.

Mr. Mason—Our grievances are great; we have been humiliated.

Mr. Douglas—Congress should apply the necessary legislation; a convention of separate States to settle this matter is not necessary.

Mr. Mason—We have become satisfied that unless we have evidences that the constitution and the laws will be upheld by a convention of the different States, we are not bound to remain in the Union.

Mr. Collamer—The State Legislatures should aid in establishing a fraternal feeling

Mr. Wigfall—Slaves have been recognized as property in at least three different places in the constitution. Our rights have been violated.

Mr. S. A. Douglas,—Because the rights of the Southern States have been violated it, does not justify them in leaving the Union.

Wigfall—Does the Senator from Illinois instead of answering one question propose another?

Mr. Davis cited the bill annuling the legislation of Kansas.

This caused a general interchange of expression between Messrs. Davis, Wigfall, Brown and Douglas. Pending which, on motion of Wigfall, Senate adjourned at 4.30 P. M.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—9 P. M.

Mr. Branch of N. C., has declined the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

Gen. Scott has prepared a plan for the adjustment between the North and South which the committee desire to have before them. The committee organized to day, the members from Arkansas, Florida and S. Carolina declining to appear. Houston of Alabama, urged prompt action and freely expressed the opinion that the committee might adopt a report which will restore Union feeling at the South and avert secession. The committee, after organizing, adjourned till to-morrow.

The bill which passed the House yesterday, authorizing the issue of $10,000,000 of Treasury notes, gives power to the Secretary of the Treasury to sell them at the market rates, as the wants of the government may require, the bids to be invited by a notice of ten days.

The Post Office Committee of the House met this A. M. to consider an overland mail bill, submitted to them by Mr. Colfax, Chairman. After consultation, they unanimously adopted the bill—the details of which are as follows: That the Postmaster General advertise for proposals for carrying the entire mail overland, daily, between St. Joseph, Mo, and Sacramento, Cal., by the central route, from July, 1861, to July, 1865—Denver City and Salt Lake to be supplied weekly, without extra charge, the amount not to exceed $800,000 per year.

Letters and papers to be carried through by the contractors in 20 days, and pamphlets, magazines and public documents in 30 days.

The bill authorizes temporary steamship service from New York to San Francisco at the rate to be paid to Com. Vanderbilt at the present session.

The service is to be subject to discontinuance on ninety days notice and is to continue until otherwise ordered by Congress. In case the daily overland contract is not taken within the sum limited the bill is to be reported to the House this week.

The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Toucey, was to-day requested by the President to act as Secretary of Treasury, in addition to his present duties, until a successor to Mr. Cobb shall be appointed.

Mr. Cobb then formally took leave of the President—the interview being pleasant and of a private character.

The House Union Committee held their first meeting to-day, and organized.

The Denver City coach of the 8th, passed here at 2 o'clock this P. M.

DENVER, Dec. 8.—The jury, in Harrison's case, have not yet agreed on a verdict. The Evening News of the 7th publishes a number of results in quartz mill operations, the preceding week varying from $331 80 up to $1,556 40.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE EUROPA.

CAPE RACE, N. F., Dec. 11—9 P. M.

The Royal mail steamship Europa, Capt. Smith, from Liverpool Saturday, Dec. 1st, via Queenstown, was boarded off here at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning by the news yacht and the following summary of her news obtained.

The Europa is due at Halifax on Wednesday night.

The U. S. mail steamship Atlantic, from New York, arrived at Cowes on the 30th ult.

The screw steamer Edinburgh, from New York, arrived at Queenstown on the 30th.

The political news by the Europa is not of an important character.

The situation of Italian affairs was unchanged.

The garrison at Gaeta had made a sortie and were repulsed with great loss.

The American money crisis has caused specie shipments from England, and the Europa has a large amount on board. Large shipments were expected to be made on the 5th. These movements caused a renewal on the 30th of gold withdrawal from the Bank, which had previously reduced its rate of discount to 5 1 2 per cent.

Union Convention in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J. Dec. 11—9 P. M.

A convention to consider the danger which threatens the Union, met here to day. A large number of people were present. Col. Wm. C. Alexander presided, assisted by a Vice President from each county in the State. A committee on an address and resolutions was appointed, of which committee Mr. Stockton was made Chairman.

After an able and eloquent speech by Col Alexander in favor of the Union, which thrilled the audience, and calling forth immense applause, Com. Stockton came forward, and after a few remarks on the impending danger to the Union, read the address, which is a very strong and able document.

The address declares that the North has committed great wrongs, and must retrace its steps by the repeal of all laws preventing the execution of the fugitive slave law; that the citizens of the South must be allowed to travel through other States with their property; and that slaves must be relinquished on claim being made for them.

All this the South has a clear right to. She looks not to indemnity for the past, but for protection in the future. The North is in the wrong as matters now stand; and what has been wrongfully done, must be undone.

Upon the adoption of the address, objection was made by Mr. Halstead, Jr., who regarded the wrong about equal on both sides. He thought the address ought simply to declare against any attempt to trample down the authority of the Government.

Com. Stockton replied eloquently, at considerable length.

The address was then laid upon the table and the resolutions adopted, amid much confusion, but by a large vote.

Mr. Jas. F. Rusling, a Republican, attempted to speak on the resolution and address, and was proceeding to argue that there was no wrong at all on the part of the North and that the wrong was on the part of the South. Great confusion ensued, when the speaker's voice being drowned by the hisses and applause, the chairman came forward and said that it was evident the Convention did not desire to hear the gent. He then put the question on the adoption of the resolution, which was carried. The address was adopted by a large vote.

Remarks were made pending the adoption of the resolution by Messrs, Wm. Halsted, O. P. Halsted, Judge Pierson and others. The two first gentlemen named believe in the doctrines of the address; but though they wanted moderation, several Republicans cheered for free speech. The following persons were appointed, under the 5th resolution, a commission to consult and advise with other States: Hon. R. F. Stockton, Hon. R. M. Price, Hon. Peter D. Vroom, Hon. Joseph Randolph, Hon. Benj. Williamson and Hon. W. C. Alexander.

Mr. O. S. Halstead offered a resolution to the effect that both the North and South had committed wrongs against each other and the Federal Government. New Jersey pledges herself to do all in her power to preserve the rights of the South under the Federal Government and the Constitution; adopted.

The convention adjourned in the midst of confusion, Mr. Rusling claiming the right to speak.

Attempted Robbery.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Dec. 11—9 P. M.

A party of four men went to the house of Morgan Walker, eight miles east of this place, and demanded his money and negroes. Walker, having been notified that such a demand would be made, called his neighbors to his assistance, and fired upon them, killing one and wounding one other. The one wounded and the other two made their escape. The Sheriff and a posse are in pursuit. The robbers are from Kansas, and were betrayed by one whom they had pressed into their service. Great excitement exists, and should the three men be caught, no doubt they will be hanged.

Louisville Matters.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 11—9 P. M.

The report from the East that the Secretaryship of the Treasury had been tendered to Hon. Jas. Guthrie is entirely without foundation.

Gov. Magoffin ordered motion in Supreme Court for writ of mandamus against Gov. Dennison, of Ohio, growing out of latter's refusal to surrender Iago upon Magoffin's requisition. If motion fails, other steps will be immediately taken.

Interesting from Hayti.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—9 P. M.

MONETARY.

TUESDAY P. M., Dec. 11th, 1860.

The money market has not changed in any respect since Saturday, and that means that it remains at a dead stand. The stagnation prevalent in general business causes comparatively little demand for currency, and consequently there is less stringency in that department of the market than would otherwise be the case. As for exchange there is none coming into the hands of the banks, and they have none to sell. Merchants who have urgent need of exchange, are obliged to make it for themselves by sending forward flour or pork. There have been no changes recently in the discount on uncurrent money. Bills of Illinois solvent banks pass amongst our merchants at par, and are bought by the brokers and banks at 2½@3 ℘ cent. discount—the latter being the regular bank rate. The bills of the discredited banks are taken at 60c on the dollar.

MONEY AND STOCKS AT NEW YORK.

(By telegraph to the Sentinel.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

Money easy enough on call at 7 ℘ cent., with good security, but rates for paper are very irregular. Only small sales of sterling exchange. Stocks moderately active and better. C & R I 46; M & M 7½; LaC & M 1; I C scrip 57; C B & Q 64; M C 45½; Harl 29½; Erie 24½; Pac Mail 50; D & H 82; I C bonds 86, C & T 22½; G & C 62; C C & C 88; M S 12½; do gtd 22; Read 33; Hud 37; N Y C 77½, Cumb 5; H & S; Jo 53; Hud 1st bds 101; N C 6's 80; Tenn 6's 67½; Va. 74; Mo 64; Ky 95; U S '65 95; do '67 95. MONEY AND EXCHANGE AT CHICAGO.

The Times of this morning says:

Eastern Exchange continues exceedingly close, with but little alteration from Saturday's prices. The nominal rates at bank are 10 ℘ cent., but they are drawing very little, and those who have to seek accommodations outside are compelled to pay 11@15 ℘ cent, just as the shylocks can take advantage of their victim's necessities.

The remittances of currency from the country to pay for goods, and for other purposes, are very heavy, and our merchants cannot convert it into Eastern Exchange, except a heavy discount, and there is little or no demand for it for produce purposes, the accumulations of currency at the banks is larger than ever before in the history of Chicago. Some few merchants are disposing of their surplus by buying produce and shipping East, for the purpose of making exchange; but many think that, under present circumstances they run a risk of losing more on their shipments than the price of exchange. Yet, as we have remarked on a former occasion, the effort is worth making.

FINANCIAL MATTERS AT CINCINNATI.

The Gazette of Monday morning says:

Business men worked through their engagements with the bankers on Saturday with their usual success, no default having occurred, although the payments were heavy, and paper as difficult of negotiation as at any previous time. How this is done seems a mystery, for the stagnation in trade is general and complete; but it is done, and we are compelled to take the result without an explanation. Loans are not being increased, and the contraction depends upon the ability of parties indebted to the banks to bear the pressure. The latter are getting in all they can, and putting out little or nothing. The pork trade, who use a large amount of money at this season, have, owing to the backwardness of the business, not yet exhausted their own immediate resources, except in few cases, and from this source, therefore, there have not been any considerable offerings for discount.

There was a firmer feeling again in the market for New York exchange on Saturday, under a good demand and diminished receipts, and the market closed with an upward tendency, at ⅛ prem. buying and ¼ prem. selling. In some cases dealers paid ¼ for checks of neighboring drawers. Philadelphia was still somewhat irregular, but the general market is lower than on Saturday, and our quotations indicate the prevailing figures. Baltimore was very much depressed, and in the afternoon certificates of deposit were offered at 3 dis. without finding buyers. We quote 2½@3 dis. buying, and 1 to 2 dis. selling.—Nothing doing in New Orleans. Gold firm at ½@1 prem.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY P. M., Dec. 11, 1860.

The receipts of flour and grain here for the past 24 hours, exclusive of the deliveries by teams, have been from the following sources:

	Flour, bus.	Wheat, bus.	Oats, bus.	Corn, bus.	Bar'y, bus.	Rye, bus
Mil. & Miss. R.R..	....	2,095	....	151	83	....
LaC. & M. R. R....	460	884	....	....	243	....
M.W. & B.V. R.R.	2	2,515	....	....	....	....
M. & C. R. R....	128	....	....	292	....	....
Total...........	590	5,497	...	443	326	....

The improvement in wheat noted yesterday, was fully sustained to-day, and there were plenty of buyers, but very few sellers, and on that account but little business was done. There is evidently a better feeling in the market, and as receivers expect an early reaction to follow the great depression of the past three weeks, they are not disposed to sell at present, Every day increases the number of small buyers, who would be willing to take the risk of investing at present prices, but they find a good deal of difficulty in purchasing. All that was offered to-day, and that was a very limited amount, was eagerly taken at 63@65c for No. 2 and No. 1 in store. The market for dressed hogs was very dull, as sellers were holding for better prices than packers were disposed to pay. Most of the former were holding at $5@5,25, and some at 5@5,37 for lots dividing on 200 ℔s, and the inside quotation we have reason to think, could have been obtained this afternoon. The receipts were only 126 head.

CHICAGO MARKET, DECEMBER 10.

Receipts at Chicago, yesterday, included 2,247 bbls flour, 11,530 bus wheat, 9,243 bus corn, 348 dressed and 4,291 live hogs. In reference to the market the Tribune says:

There was rather a better feeling in the wheat market this morning, and No. 1 and 2 spring sold at a shade higher figure than on Saturday. The bulk of the sales were at 70@71c for No. 1, and 67@67½c for No. 2, and 60c for rejected spring. The transactions in flour were limited to the sales of a few hundred bbls at $3,25@3,90 for good to choice spring wheat extras, and $2,50@2,50 for superfine, Corn was quiet, with but a small business doing, at 27@28c for mixed and yellow. There was but a small demand for oats in bags at 18@19c, and 17½c in store. Barley is rather firmer; the market range is 35@55c for common to choice, the outside price only being paid for choice lots in bags. Rye is quiet and nominal at 43@45c.—Highwines were dull and nominal at 15@15½c. There was a rather better demand for dressed hogs, both from shippers and packers, and the market was a shade higher. There was rather more inquiry for mess pork and lard—a number of parties being on the market who wish to buy in order to ship East and make exchange. The sales embrace some 1,400 bbls at $14,75@15, mostly for future delivery. About 400 tcs of lard were reported at 10@10½c. We did not learn of any sales of cut meats.

HOGS AND PROVISIONS AT CINCINNATI.

From the Gazette of Monday morning:

In the general markets, Saturday was another very dull day. The sales of hogs were quite limited.—Heavy were mostly held at $5,25, but buyers were scarce at anything over $5, and they were not plenty at that. A lot of 110, averaging 170 to 180 ℔s, sold at $4,90, and 110, averaging 210, at $5,10. Drovers, rather than face the consequences of forcing sales in the present condition of the trade, are packing. Receipts, 4,500. About 600 bbls mess pork sold at $14.—The demand was met pretty freely at this figure, although some brands were held at $14,25. Lard dull at 9c. Green meats dragged at 4½, 6½, and 7½; and 600 pcs shoulders and sides were offered in the evening at 4 and. We quote bulk meats at 5@5½ for shoulders, and 7@7½ for sides. Old bacon dull at 6 and 8 for shoulders and sides.

MARINE NEWS.

FOR TWO RIVERS.

Should the weather not be very unfavorable the steamer Comet will start from OLMSTED's dock at eight o'clock this evening, for Two Rivers and intermediate ports. Her accommodations for passengers are excellent.

LUMBER VESSELS.

The scarcity of lumber here and at Chicago, and the consequent high rates of freight, present a tempting inducement to vessels to make a trip or two more to the lumber districts before laying up for the winter. Yesterday forenoon we saw a good sized schooner leaving our harbor and shaping her course in the direction of Manistee, and two or three vessels from Chicago, bound for ports in the North-eastern part of the State, were moored inside the Straight Cut, awaiting more favorable weather, as the wind was blowing strongly west by south. The bark Shanghai, which was laid up near two weeks ago, yesterday was bending her sails preparatory to making a trip to Sheboygan for a cargo of lumber.

"MARINE INTELLIGENCE."

The Wisconsin of last evening, in alluding to the recent gale, enumerates the crew of the schr. Circassian amongst the lost. They were brought to this city, and then taken to Chicago, by the prop. Montgomery, over a week ago, and are supposed to be still in the "land of the living."

THE VESSEL DISASTERS ON LAKE ONTARIO.

The Buffalo Republic of Saturday has the following reliable information from Capt. VINT BIDWELL of the Ætna Insurance Co., who has just returned from a tour around Lake Ontario, as to the condition of the vessels that were disabled by the recent gale on that lake:

Bark Gem, at Oakville, is screwed up and ready to launch.

Bark Woodruff, at Coburgh, damaged about $1,500, off and inside the harbor.

Schooner Welland, at Presque Isle, vessel in three feet water, with purchases rigged to haul her off with a very little expense. Waiting for a sea to float her.

Schooner Mary, towed into Kingston by the tug Page, very little damage.

Bark Quebec, at Wind Mill Point, screwed up and ways under her ready to launch.

Bark St. George, at South Bay, total loss. The wheat being sold at 20c ℘ bus.

Schooner Wild Rover, in South Bay, between 5,000 and 6,000 bus wheat taken out dry, the rest wet.—Pumps on the vessel, but had to send for more to get her off. Expenses and damage to vessel $1,500.

The propeller Coaster, eight miles below South Mills, is a total loss.

Schooners Coloraine, ashore at Brockville; Cape Horn at Point Peninsular, with a cargo of wheat; Game Cock at same place, with coal; Marquette at Nicholson Island, with coal; Minnehaha at Ogdensburgh, with wheat; and Mary Selina at Cape Vincent, have all been got off with little damage to vessel or cargoes.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

From the Detroit Advertiser, Dec. 10.

The schooner John Thursby arrived Saturday evening from Chicago, and passed, for Buffalo, yesterday morning. The schooner Grenada was last seen, we understand, off Point au Barques, and is due here on her way to Buffalo. The tug Oswego went up to Port Huron on Saturday, and it was supposed would bring the Grenada with her in return.

The bark Torrent, which went ashore near Barcelona in the late gale, has been got to Buffalo, and goes immediately into dry dock.

The schooner Athenian goes into winter quarters here.

Information received on Saturday afternoon brings assurance of the safety of the brig Roscius, which had been supposed lost with all hands. She cleared on her last trip from Chicago for Green Bay, instead of Buffalo, as at first reported. She was seen the night previous to the late gale in comfortable quarters and out of danger. Being unable to return to Chicago, she has gone into winter quarters.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

THERE IS A RARE OPPORTUNITY for a good BLACKSMITH and a good SHOEMAKER to establish themselves in a lucrative business, in the town of Herseyville, in Monroe County, Wisconsin. It is located on the line of the LaCrosse & Milwaukee Railroad, in the heart of the famous La Crosse Valley, one of the pleasantest and healthiest parts of the State. Being a new place, the owner of the lands in the vicinity of the depot proposes to furnish building lots for shops and dwellings, to a limited number, FREE, so as to enable some industrious, but poor mechanics, an excellent chance to better their immediate prospects. The place is thriving, and has, at present, some two or three hundred farmers within five miles; and two good water-powers within half a mile of the depot; also a post-office and store. Large quantities of wheat are shipped daily from this Station.
Any communications to the undersigned will be promptly attended to. O. M. HERSEY,

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'Ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked upon as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.
For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.
Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.
Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and giv me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?
Mrs Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.
Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist's. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.
Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers of this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

DID you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.
They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.
They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.
For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.
The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.
They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
